had spoken to the DCI asking for assistance with the Congress in securi passage of a good passport bill. Apparently Mr. Herter suggested that the Agency representatives work with Mr. Hanes' office and has been in touch with Hanes and John Sipes. Appropriate printed mate is being made available to and he is preparing a memorand to the DCI suggesting a number of possibilities for assisting. I suggest that before we went too far in any consideration we should leafrom William Macomber's effice and from the staff of Senate Foreign Relations whatever information they might have on probable positions of various Senators.
